Carina and Aron on the Red Sea - Aron-News

Hi,

Aron yesterday dropped his anchor at Marsa Girid (Egypt).

His position: 2009.05.06. 12:30 UTC 22-24N 036-25E

http://meder.hu/RedS_Arut.jpg

He will stay there 3-4 days, because of the strong NNW winds.

Meantime he is doing some reparations and maintenance.

A Navy officer is helping him to buy a few things

(fuel, vegetables, batteries...)

Regards,

im

Carina and Aron on the Red Sea - Aron-News

Hi,

Aron just arrived to Port Ghalib:

25-32N 034-38,5E

http://meder.hu/RedS_Arut.jpg

<http://www.portghalib.com/>

<http://www.portghalibmarina.com/>

<http://meder.hu/PortGhalib.jpg>

His mainsail is torn in the middle, but he hope, he can fix it.

Apart of that, everything is all right with Carina&Aron.

Regards,

im

Carina and Aron on the Red Sea - Radio-News

The mainsail story

Hi,

Joska P., a friend of Aron from Slovakia intended to send him a mainsail.
By chance Imre T., who is living in the same village,
and works at Lighthouse divecenter (<http://www.dahabdive.com/>),
was just returning to Hurgada.
So he carried the sail (and some gifts) to Aron,
who stopped in Hurgada for a few days to meet Imre.

The Abu Ali story

Hi,

After Aron left Hurgada, dropped his anchor in a bay, Mersa Zeitiya.
(2009.06.9. 27-49N 033-34E http://meder.hu/RedN_Arut.jpg).

Next day, as he left the place, the strong wind forced him to return.
Since then, two other yachts (Silver Hill and Esperanza) are waiting there.
They have also tried a few times to left the place, but were force to return.

A friend of Aron's uncle has got relatives in Port Said.
They (Mohamed H. and his wife) heard about Aron, and contacted me.
They wanted to give some help to Aron.
Mahmud, Mohamed's cousin is working on the ship Abu Ali,
which serves the oil wells nearby.
Mohamed arranged to get the ship a permit to go to Carina
to give some supplies (mainly food).

So, now he has got food enough, no rush, he can calmly wait for the better wind...
Many thanks Mohamed, Mahmud, Abu Ali's captain, and the radio-amateurs, who helped to communicate all the above

Else: I've got today the last translation of Aron's logbook, so you can follow the his trip: <http://meder.hu/eng/newlogbook.htm>

im

Escaped from the wind bondage

Hi,

Aron had been fed up with waiting for a better (slower) wind, he followed Silver Hill to the Sinai peninsula, and he was followed by other yachts. There they found smaller waves and better conditions. Now, he hopes, he could progress almost every day a few hours and a few miles.

He was close to lose his high spirit, but now he became optimistic again :-)

His position 2009.07.01 UTC12:30 28-08N 033-39E

He is going to anchor at El Tor bay.

Carina and Aron again on the Adriatic Sea - Zeljko-News

Hi,

Aron dropped his anchor in a bay near Pula on 14 September. The place (44-49,8N 013-51,5E) was suggested by Zeljko, an 'Internet' friend of Aron. http://meder.hu/Medit3_Arut.jpg

Meantime Aron was waiting for the end of stormy winds, with the help of Zeljko had Internet access, was interviewed by a local newspaper: www.24sata.hr/news/tri-godine-samoce-oplovio-svijet-u-barci-od-6-metara/135841/ and by Croatian national TV for a TV show about sea.

By now Aron left that bay and sailing with a fair wind (Yugo) toward his starting point, Koper: <http://meder.hu/eng/press.pdf>

By the way, this is an article about Aron in Barletta: <http://meder.hu/eng/Barletta090909.htm> and this is Alessandro's translation edited by Lali: <http://meder.hu/eng/AronArrivedInBarletta.pdf>

Carina & Aron - at home

Hi,

Aron is quite busy yet, with the media and the visitors at Carina. Next week we will write a short report about Aron's first days in Budapest.

Till than, if somebody could help us translating this article from Greece, that would be fine: <http://meder.hu/hun/Greece090815.jpg>

Carina and Aron in Croatia - Zeljko-News

Hi,

Zeljko made an interview with Aron about his fishing methods on the sea.

That was published the famous fishing magazine "Pesca in Mare",

<http://ribolov-hrvatska.com/>.

Here are some photos about the article:

<http://meder.hu/CrFishing1.JPG>

<http://meder.hu/CrFishing2.JPG>

<http://meder.hu/CrFishing3.JPG>

I hope we would get some better ones too, then somebody could .translate it.

Have a nice weekend,

Voiles et voiliers - Sailboats and sailors

Hi,

One of the most famous European sailing magazine, the French "Voiles et voiliers" (Sailboats and sailors <http://www.voilesetvoiliers.com>) put on the January edition's front-page a photo about Carina&Aron: <http://www.voilesetvoiliers.com/items/r...cture/5460>

Jean-Luc Gourmelen wrote a long and appreciative article "Round the World, Epic about a modern Robinson": http://www.voilesetvoiliers.com/sommair...nvier_2010
<http://www.voilesetvoiliers.com/items/r...cture/5431>

Here is the scanned article:
<http://meder.hu/hun/Voiles1001en.htm>

By the way, Jean-Luc is an experienced solo-sailor, who fulfilled the Mini Transat solo Atlantic crossing race in 80-s. He presents not only the 3-years story, he is analyzing the professional aspects of the trip as well.

Happy New Year,
Aron and Istvan

SEGELN Magazin - Auf sechs Metern um die Welt

Hi,

The 03/2010 issue of the SEGELN Magazin (www.segeln-magazin.de) published the same article, which was wrote by Jean-Luc Gourmelen in "Voiles et voiliers". The German title is: "Auf sechs Metern um die Welt"
<http://meder.hu/hun/CarinaumdieWelt.pdf>

I'm glad to let you know, that Aron's book will be presented on 27 February, 2010, 7 pm, Menta terasz, (Budapest, II. Margit krt. 14). Its title: "Peace and Wind – 3 years round the World"

If you write a mail to jatek@jaffa.hu,
you can get a numbered (limited) edition VIP copy.

An other good news: at the Budapest Boat Show 2010
(<http://www.boatshow.hu/>) you can see Carina and Aron,
and you can buy and have dedicated that book,
as well as the first one (A kicsik is útrakelhetnek).

Tomorrow Ivo, Mario and I are going to Zagreb Boat Show. There is a high probability that we get to the promotion of books in Budapest, it is only 300 km on the highway. Do you use your old cell phone numbers that I have?

SoloVela SAILING ADVENTURE - Three years on the seas with low budget

Hi,

The 03/2010 issue of the Italian sailing magazine,
SoloVela SAILING ADVENTURE (www.solovela.net)
published a long article about Aron's adventure:
<http://meder.hu/hun/SoloVela1003.htm>

It is welcomed a translation in English (or any other language).
